Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye;
Four and twenty blackbirds
Baked in a pie!

To set before the king?

The queen was in the parlor
Eating bread and honey
The maid was in the garden
Hanging out the clothes
Along came a blackbird and pecked off her nose

8. On Top of Old Smokey

On top of old Smoky all covered with snow
I lost my true lover by courtin' too slow
For courtinings a pleasur

For meetin's a pleasure, and parting is grief
And a false-hearted lover is worse than a thief

A thief, he will rob you, and take all you have
But a false-hearted true love will drive you to your grave

They will tell you they love you just to give your heart ease
And as soon as your back's turned they'll court who they please

They'll hug you and kiss you, and tell you more lies
Than cross ties in a railroad or stars in the skies

Where the wild birds and the turtle doves can hear my

Last night she was with me, tonight she is gone
